BUTTE FALLS HIGH SCHOOL

May 20, 1988

GOOD-BYE

In the bible, in the Old Testament, in the book of Ecclesiastes, and in the third chapter it says there is a season and a time for everything. I think there are 28 different things listed, but it left out a time to retire, so I guess I will add that to my list of things to do.

As of April 30, I will no longer be your custodian. It has been a long and enjoyable time here at the high school and I am going to miss all of you kids more than I can imagine.

When I first came here in 1970 I said just wait until I retire and I will write an editorial and tell you kids off for all the mean things you did, but you know what? I can't even think of a single bad thing you have ever done, all I can remember is what a great bunch of guys and gals you have been. The kids here now are the greatest of them all. Each year it seems like you kids get nicer than the year before.

Since I won't be seeing you very much anymore, I want to wish you a great life, and may god richly bless you in good health and much happiness.

To the staff, what a great bunch to work with and for, I am going to miss you all, I have some favorites and if each one of you says I am the one your probably will be right.

To you Bob, thanks for a great last year, I appreciate you very much.

Much Love to you all,

Russell

*Have a nice summer !!!
School starts September 6*

BOB'S PLACE

By Bob Moore

FROM DELIA EPHRON'S HOW TO EAT LIKE A CHILD

HOW TO BEHAVE AT RECESS

Stand Around. Discuss bedtimes. Say that you stayed up until midnight to finish your homework. Your friend will answer, that's nothing, he stayed up until two o'clock, and you can respond, "Big deal, last week I was up until four." Add that on weekends you can stay up as late as you want, once you were up all night, and has he ever been to a drive-in movie? Your dad took you. Show each other your fillings. Announce whether you are a Democrat or a Republican and take a position on the coming election based on your parents' conversation the night before. Discuss Hydrox versus Oreo. Compare chunky peanut butter and creamy. Argue about the most sickening vegetable. Compare number of rooms in your house, counting closets. Compare allowances. Choose whether you would rather freeze to death or be burned alive. Feel each other's muscles. Say that you got a break on your new car 'cause your dad knows the dealer. Say that your dad thinks foreign cars are better. Say that he likes "four on the floor." Discuss brands of sneakers. Try to step on each other's shoes. Demonstrate how to make a fart noise by putting your hand in your armpit and squeezing. Say that you know the longest word in the English language--antidisestablishmentarianism. Bet that no one can spell it.

Walk around wearing wax mustaches and red lips.

See if M&Ms will melt in your hand.

Eat red-hots and show off your red tongue.

Promise that you'll be a kid's best friend if he gives you a Tootsie Pop. Wish that you would hurry up and get to the center of it while you listen to a riddle: Why did the little moron take a ladder to the party? Because he heard that drinks were on the house.

Say, "Guess what?" When a kid says, "What?" say, "That's what." Do it again and again until you come to a kid who says "That's what."

There is a student whose head is kind of flat on top. Skip around the playground chanting, "Flathead, flathead, flathead."

To be immune from a kid with cooties, give yourself a cootie shot.

Put your finger over the spout of the drinking fountain to direct the spray so it hits everyone. When the water soaks a kid's pants, shriek that everyone will think he wet them. Hold the faucet handle for a friend to take a drink and, when he leans over, let the water die down. Say, "OK, OK, I'll do it right. Honest. Word of honor. Trust me. Really, don't worry," and when he leans down again, turn it up full force. Take a drink, hold water in mouth, chase a kid and spray him. Do it again, but this time burst out laughing before you get a chance at a good shot. While screaming, repeat all water activities until the playground supervisor threatens to bench you. Stand under the jungle gym and look under girls' skirts. Tell a girl that you'll give her a nickel if she'll climb up.

Lie on the ground just in case a girl walks by.

Ask a girl in a dress to stand on her head.

Listen to a kid tell a dirty joke. Laugh hysterically. Do not have any idea what you are laughing at.

Envy the kid with a broken leg. Beg for a turn on his crutches.

Say the "You know what" (starts with the sixth letter of the alphabet) word, and see what everyone does.

Pretend that you do not know your little sister.

Play tag. Argue about whether you were touched. Play war. Argue about whether you were killed. Play kickball. Argue about whether you were out. Play dodge ball. Argue about whether you moved. Take sides when everyone else argues. If necessary, scream about fairness and call the other side names, such as jerks, creeps, crumbs, liars, and dirty cheaters.

SENIOR SKIP TRIP

by Mike Rodgers

The Butte Falls High Class of 1988 are doing things a little different than seniors have done in the past years. Instead of taking their skip trip during school, they're going to go the week after they graduate. All you lower classmen will still be in school though.

Senior trip will be at Lake Shasta in Redding, California. They're going to rent a 15 person houseboat from Silverthorn Resort equiped with all types of luxuries. They're also going to have major bucks left over to have fun with. The fun includes renting jet skiis and going out to dinner.

Since the skip trip isn't actually a skip trip, but rather just a trip, a skip day has been planned for Friday, May 20th so the seniors can still skip a day.

END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

by Julie Wallace

The time has finally come--the end of the school year. The end is creeping up fast, especially for the seniors, and just in case you'd like to know, the dates and times of Baccalaureate and Graduation, they are: Baccalaureate, Sunday, May 22, at 7 p.m. in the Butte Falls Community Bible Church; and Graduation will be held in the Butte Falls High School gym on Friday, May 27, at 7:30 p.m.

GerriAnne Huey is this years Valedictorian and Salutatorian is Robin Cool. Congratulations, girls! Senior class president, Bob Moore, will be class speaker.

Music for graduation will be supplied by a talented girls trio consisting of Trisha Johnson, Chrissy Seda, and Nicki Foster, accompanied by Miss Deanne Strong. Also Keiko Oride will play a piano solo.

Students with 3.0 or better average will wear gold cords. These students are Robin Cool, Natona Holm, GerriAnne Huey, and Mike Rodgers.

HONOR SOCIETY DINNER

by Kathleen Boyd

This year's Honor Dinner will be attended only by honor students. In the past, student council attended also, but this year it has changed. Even though there is a loss of the student council there will be 21 students going, compared to last year's 20 (including student council). Good Job Students!

The dinner will be at Shoji's at 7:00 p.m. This dinner is to reward the Honor Students for all their hard work.

This year's seniors did a grand job and 8 out of 13 students will be attending the dinner. CONGRATULATIONS!!!

JR-SR PROM

by Ed Flaa

The Junior-Senior Prom will be this Saturday, May 14. If you, by chance, forgot to buy your Prom ticket you may still purchase one before Friday, May 13 by noon. Also don't forget to bring your ticket with you to Prom.

The Prom will be at Ashland Hills Inn. The theme is "Year of the Dragon." The dance will be for one hour, possibly an hour and a half. It will be hosted by Mr. Bill Boyd.

There will be soft drinks available at a "dry" bar. You must have money on hand for the drinks and to pay for pictures!

JUNIORS AND SENIORS DON'T FORGET TO PICK UP YOUR PROM TICKETS!!!**

SOFTBALL

by Julie Wallace

This years softball team is off to a bad start, but there is still a chance for improvement. The team got quite a shock when they found out on the morning of their first game that they had lost two players for the rest of the season. The girls team consisted of only 11 players to begin with, so they were cut down to the minimum of 9 players before the season even started. We have two new coaches, Sean Brant and Ron Sizemore, as well as five girls who have never played high school softball.

This years team consists of freshmen Andi Thompson, Karen Figueira, and Stacy Ferguson; sophomores Nicki Foster and Trissy Seda; juniors Suzy Burton, Lois Anders, Paula Olmos, and Julie Wallace; and senior Tami Sutton-our newest player. GOOD LUCK IN THE REST OF THE SEASON GIRLS!!

BASEBALL

by Mike Rodgers

Now that basketball is over its time for another sport that the Butte Falls Loggers excel in. Baseball!!!!!!!

The boy's are off to a good start this year in baseball and things look promising. A big reason for their success this year is because that they're returning seven starters in the line-up. Returning players are ace hurler Rory Coffman, Sean Callahan, Mike Rodgers, Bob Moore, and Isaac Callahan all of which were all-league first and second team choices last year. Other returning starters are Lawrence Hunsaker and Tom Dunning. There are also some new players coming out and many others who saw playing time last year.

Six starters at this time in league are carrying batting averages over .350 and the pitchers which include Bob Moore, Sean Callahan, and the recently recovered Rory Coffman who suffered a sprained finger in the third game of the regular season have compiled a record of 9 wins and two losses.

NICE JOB LOGGERS AND KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!!!!

EDITORS NOTE: The boys baseball team is number one in our league and sixth in the state. The first playoff game will be Friday, May 27, and if things go well, it will be a home game.

BEER PRESSURE

Don't get pressured into drinking and driving around graduation. You know it isn't safe. And you know it's against the law. So resist peer pressure: think for yourself.

If someone you know has been drinking, don't take any chances. Take their keys. That's the kind of peer pressure that keeps people alive.
